

Job Title: Row New York Community Assistant - Adaptive Programs

Job Type: Part Time, hourly

Supervisor: Director of Community Rowing

Direct Reports: None

Position Summary:

Row New York (RNY) seeks a positive and energetic person to serve as a coach for the community programs in Queens, NY. The coach's primary focus will be to coach participants in Row New York's adaptive programs, middle school indoor program, juvenile justice program and representing Row New York at community events. The coach will also have the opportunity to coach various other programs including, but not limited to learn-to-row programs, summer camps, groups, indoor rowing programs, and team building programs, schedule permitting.

The Community Coach will work primarily at the Queens boathouse in Flushing Meadows Corona Park. An excellent candidate has experience in coaching rowing and is committed to introducing the sport of rowing to the broader community.

Responsibilities:

- Assist with our School Day Adaptive program (SDA), in a safe, inclusive, and positive environment. This program is in partnership with the NYC Department of Education's District 75 in which students with disabilities get to experience the sport of rowing and all of its benefits.
- Assist with scheduled team building and community engagement programs such as our Middle School Indoor program, Juvenile Justice program, and Queens Summer Camp.
- Develop and maintain positive working relationships with RNY staff and administration, including administrators, coaches, and support staff
- Foster a strong team culture and set expectations to maintain good attendance and participation among athletes
- Administer basic maintenance and repair of equipment at the Queens boathouse
- Acquire knowledge on developing adaptive/para-rowing culture and coaching
- Represent RNY at community events throughout Queens and Brooklyn
- Foster strong relationships with all participants
- Forge strong relationships with families and community members

Qualifications:

- Bachelor's degree
- Coaching experience, with demonstrated safety record
- Preference of 3 years of high school, collegiate, or elite level rowing
- Commitment to the mission of Row New York
- Strong references
- Comfort working with individuals with disabilities a plus
- Clean driver's license
- Effective use of a variety of technology tools including database a plus
- Training in Physical Therapy, Occupational Therapy, Recreational Therapy, or Kinesiology a plus
- Fluency in Spanish preferred

Compensation:

Row New York is committed to creating a culture that is supportive of learning, growth, and staff development. Our investment in staff includes competitive salary commensurate with experience and opportunities for professional development.

To Apply:

Submit cover letter, resume, and references to akeelya@rownewyork.org with "Community Rowing Assistant - Queens" in subject line. Only applicants asked to interview will be contacted. No phone calls please.

Row New York is an equal opportunity employer.